- The Sunday luncheon raised $400. This will be donated to the “Make a Wish” foundation.
- We have a proposal to have a Christmas function similar to yesterday at Wellers Inn or please put forward any other venues to be considered.
- The Burnie Lions Club have requested that we have a joint BBQ in January, all members seem to be in agreement.
- The Burnie 10 is on this coming Sunday, the volunteers are Steph Prendergast, Ian Guest, Wayne Licht, David Bennett and Elizabeth Kinneir-Tarte.
- Elizabeth has handed out some forms to object to the council closing the Art Gallery, please fill them out and submit them.

Secretary – George Austin

- The Service Directors propose to meet with their committees on a more regular basis, the committee members need to take more of the work load off the Directors.

- We need another fundraiser to make up for the hole the show gate money left in our budget.
- Our membership target is for every member to bring at least one guest or prospective member to a meeting.

INTERNATIONAL DAY LUNCHEON –

The luncheon on Sunday was an outstanding success, not only from a financial aspect, but also a magnificent social get together with most members and their partners participating along with numerous guests. The casseroles were delicious and so numerous that many went back for seconds and there was still ample left-over. An event that was thoroughly enjoyed by all and must be repeated in the future.

My apologies for not having any photographs, next time I will take my camera.

LAST WEEKS MEETING

This week our guest speaker failed to show but Allan Jamieson filled in with an impromptu auto-biography that was like a tour of the worlds Paper and Pulp industry.

It started back in an up-country Victoria where an 8 year school boy was given a book on Canada which instilled a burning ambition to go there. One teacher mentioned that chemical engineering was a qualification that was in demand and could take him anywhere he wanted to go. After graduating from university he headed to Montreal where he joined the Pulp and Paper industry, an industry that would see him living in many countries around the world including Sweden, Japan and eventually Australia where he joined the management team of APPM and settled in Burnie Tasmania where he still lives to this day.

Weekly Funnies

A police officer pulls over a speeding car. The officer says, 'I clocked you at 80 miles per hour, sir.'

The driver says, 'Gee, officer, I had it on cruise control at 60; perhaps your radar gun needs calibrating.'

Not looking up from her knitting the wife says: 'Now don't be silly, dear -- you know that this car doesn't have cruise control.'

As the officer writes out the ticket, the driver looks over at his wife and growls,

'Can't you please keep your mouth shut for once!! ?'

The wife smiles demurely and says, 'Well dear you should be thankful your radar detector went off when it did or your speed would have been higher.'

As the officer makes out the second ticket for the illegal radar detector unit, the man glowers at his wife and says through clenched teeth,

'Woman, can't you keep your mouth shut?'

The officer frowns and says, 'And I notice that you're not wearing your seat belt, sir. That's an automatic $75 fine.'

The driver says, 'Yeah, well, you see, officer, I had it on, but I took it off when you pulled me over so that I could get my license out of my back pocket.'

The wife says, 'Now, dear, you know very well that you didn't have your seat belt on. You never wear your seat belt when you're driving.'

And as the police officer is writing out the third ticket, the driver turns to his wife and barks, 'WILL YOU PLEASE SHUT UP??'

The officer looks over at the woman and asks, 'Does your husband always talk to you this way, Ma'am?'

'Only when he's been drinking!!!'
