LAST WEEKS MEETING –

Graeme Wood had the honour of introducing our guest speakers Lyn Jarvis and Laine Willis from the 'Cure Beyond Care' organisation to the meeting.

John Glen - Laine Willis - Liz Kinneir-Tarte - Lyn Jarvis and John Pease

Lyn and Laine took us through a PP presentation explaining where 'Care Beyond Cure' came from and its plans for the future.

Care Beyond Cure is a newly-formed not-for-profit community organisation. It provides complementary therapies with a bereavement component for people living with a diagnosed progressive life limiting illness.

As a not-for-profit, the organisation relies on the good-will of others and Government grants to operate.

Roger Jaensch was pleased to announce that a re-elected majority Hodgman Liberal Government would provide Care Beyond Cure with $45,000 to assist with delivery of therapy programs.

Care Beyond Cure have advised they would use the funding to pay for a range of therapies provided by trained practitioners over a period of 12 months.

Care Beyond Cure offers things like art and pain management workshops, as well as massages and nail painting for people living with life-limiting illnesses and their families.

Therapies include reflexology, oncology massage, neck and shoulder massage, mindfulness, tai chi, gentle yoga, and art activities.

Lynne also spoke to us about a 'CoffinClub'. Once a week a community shed in Ulverstone in the north-West of Tasmania becomes a hive of activity. The people are there because they want to make a coffin.

It is the Community Coffin Club and the participants have a range of personal reasons for honing their skills in coffin-making.

Care Beyond Cure - Logo      A sample of a coffin in the Ulverstone workshop

The Care Beyond Cure Logo is recognised around the world as the 'Symbol of Universal Love', the main section represents the 'Heart' and the three dots represent 'Body' 'Mind' and 'Spirit'.

There is always time for Humour

A man returns home a day early from a business trip. It's after midnight.
On the way home, he asks the cabby if he would be a witness.
The cabby agrees for $100. The man suspects his wife is having an affair, and he wants to catch her in the act.
Quietly arriving home, the husband and cabby tippy toe into the bedroom.
The husband switches on the lights, yanks the blanket back, and there is his wife, naked as a jay bird, with a man also nude.
The husband puts a gun to the naked man's head. The wife shouts; Don't do it! I lied when I told you I inherited money.
HE paid for the Porsche I gave you.
HE paid for your new 25ft Ranger Fishing Boat.
HE paid for your Football season tickets.
HE paid for our house at the lake.
HE paid for your Golf Trip to St Andrews and your new 4 x 4.
HE paid for our country club membership, he even pays the monthly dues.
And because of HIM, I put an extra $2,000 in our checking account each month."
Shaking his head from side-to-side, the husband lowers the gun.
He looks at the cabby and says, "What would you do?"
The cabby replies, "I'd cover him with that blanket, before he catches a cold."
