OH, WOE IS OUR CLUB!!

At 6:05 pm, only two members were present. While this number had increased somewhat by 6:20 pm (our official start time) only 12 of us were present at 6:25 pm when Rotary Grace was said. It was not until 6:35 pm that the number of members had risen to its final level of 14. What's more, there were only six (6) apologies received. After allowing for Nethmini's situation, therefore, five members did not attend and did not apologise in advance.

NOT GOOD ENOUGH

Secretary George:

- TSO events: (i) Tchaikovsky's 4th on Sept. 4? (ii) Rhapsody in Blue on Oct. 28. Entry cost will be $25 to each concert.
- This coming Saturday (July 30) we will put on a BBQ at the Burnie Community House, 24 Wiseman St., Shorewell Park. We need this to be manned from 10:30 am to 2:30 pm. Volunteers came mainly from the "Doctor's table."

- Devonport North RC is arranging a Dinner for 27 August; $100 per person. Funds raised will go to several projects including our Plumtree project. Thus, we stand to gain by supporting the dinner. I will send out more information.
- Following up on last week's list of proposed Local Community projects, I contacted BCC's Simon Overland regarding a Crematorium for Dogs and for a shelter for visitors to what used to be the Municipal Tip. Overland was not overly enthusiastic, as he foresaw ongoing maintenance costs falling on Council to fund.
- Another suggested project was for us to sell manure. Which manure? Nina explained that she had contacted the Wynyard Horse Riding School and confirmed that it was feasible to collect and sell horse manure for $7 per bag.
- On behalf of our absent Treasurer, David, I ask everyone to ensure they have paid their annual dues.
