- Burnie Ten is on Sunday, Oct. 29. Volunteers: George, Roopa, Ian, Wayne L., Barrie, Wayne R, plus two more
- Important: You should all have received an email on or about Oct. 10 from RI President, Gordon McInally containing a questionnaire seeking your views on diverse Rotary details. I urge you to fill in that questionnaire (about 10~15 minutes) and send to RI soon. {I've done the survey – it is of value, I feel: Bulletin Editor}
- Christmas party (lunch?) will be at Leonardo's in Wivenhoe on Sun. Nov. 26.

Treasurer PP Paul:

General acct.	= $7,335
Plumtree acct.	= $230

Fines: NEW INITIATIVE: a tag team effort by June & Barrie

Result: Many members were fined twice!

General Discussion:

Background: A 'floor discussion' during the meeting on Oct. 9 ended with this MOTION being proposed (DF) and seconded (AJ):

"That – at our Oct. 23 meeting – this club debate options that can arise from us having just two meetings each month and make a decision."

Before the motion was put on Oct. 23, though, a discussion took place and many other items were raised that various members felt need to be addressed. These matters are not recorded herein.

An amended motion was proposed (JG), that: "We are to meet once per fortnight." This motion was put and carried [11 for, 4 against]

Regionalisation

The discussion changed to consider the upcoming submission of our club preferences by Pres. David on Oct. 30.

For background, Pres. David urged each of us to register for and watch the Zoom Webinar (one hour duration) starting at 12 noon on Oct. 27. To register:

- It appears that the ('simplest'?) decision for our club is to select the clubs located in the old Telstra "004" phone district.

Domestic Violence (DV) condemnation

D-9830 has urged all clubs to publicly condemn DV – e.g., by marching or hosting a public meeting, on Dec. 1st. Leanne undertook to find out what the other clubs in our area are planning.
