- The date for the Club's vote on the proposed Regionalisation pilot project has been delayed until Nov. 12. *see below.

Secretary PP George:

- We have received a letter from Rostrum forewarning us of their 50th anniversary coming up in 2024.
- Our novel Golf Day event is on 17 Nov. at Seabrook GC. Starting time is 12 noon, 9 holes only. We will run a BBQ, but the food prices are built into the playing fee.

* It is possible for individual club members to vote on the Regionalisation proposal. Following on from a query by Leanne, it was decided to discuss each of the questions collectively and Secretary George noted the consensus responses for on-forwarding to the vote organisers.

Guest Speaker:

Rotarian June introduced Kerrie Wright, who spoke about “Unlocking Your Full Potential.”

The essence of Kerrie’s teaching method is to impart these beliefs into students:

- Rely on your own freewill
- Don’t restrict your actions and intentions to conform with what you imagine others might expect of you
- In short: “Do your own thing.”

Kerrie displayed her book “Soothe Your Soul”, which can be purchased for $25.
