PP Ian Guest announced that at the next club meeting, he would move a motion to; “Do away with an Invocation.” PP Allan spoke briefly in support.

Secretary PP George:

- Who is prepared to become our club’s Program Director? Our next three club meetings at the RSL prior to our Christmas break lack guest speakers at present!
- Our last meeting in 2023 will be a breakfast meeting at RSL (Dec. 18 - 7:15 am for 7:30 am).
- Our Jan. 8 meeting will be a BBQ at Leanne’s home (68 Walker Street Wynyard)
- In accord with our recent decision to meet only twice per month from 2024 on, the next meeting after the Jan. 8 gathering will be on Jan. 22.
- Our next Board Meeting will be on Dec. 11.
- We have received a Newsletter from Giant Steps. This prompted the thought in my mind that it is a long time since we donated to that organisation.
- My thanks go to the bed assembly teams at Wellers Inn – 35 beds were assembled, bringing about $3,500 to the club.

- Though absent tonight, PP Wayne Licht has advised that Burnie West RC has formally allocated $5,000 towards the erection of a Rotary BBQ near the Burnie Yacht Club. We should do the same, as Wayne will need immediate access to funds to purchase materials if we get Council approval for the project.

Treasurer PP Paul:

Service acct.	= $15,036
General acct.	= $8,823
Plumtree acct.	= $230

Fines Master June:

This is becoming very familiar – Everyone at the meeting was fined!

PP Allan:

Allan advised that he has the task of preparing a history of our club for compilation into a 100-year history book of District 9830. His instruction is to limit his output to 250 words (half a page). Allan had already published a 47-page book covering the first 75 years of our club (i.e., up to 2017), but he is seeking suggestions of highlights from 2017 onwards that can be squeezed into this new, ultra-brief history document. Suggestions to be emailed to him before Friday, Nov. 24!

From the floor, Leanne suggested that Allan simply mention the existence of the earlier book, leaving most of the remaining words to focus on just the past six years.
